

Did you know that ...

- students and faculty celebrate the liturgy together each week
- MQPCS is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
- in addition to the computer lab, MQPCS has SmartBoards and computers in every classroom and laptop computers for each middle school student
- MQPCS has the Accelerated Reader program throughout the school
- MQPCS students get into the Catholic high schools of their choice
- students in first through seventh grades are engaged in the First in Math program, placing third in the state in competition
- students receive recognition in the Duke University Talent Search Program
- students participate in Catholic School Athletic League (CSAL) and NIAL sports such as flag football, volleyball, and basketball
- MQPCS alumni received salutatorian and valedictorian status at area Catholic high schools
- students compete in many areas such as regional science and social studies fairs and geography bee
- MQPCS students score high above state and national norms on standardized tests
- seventh grade students participate in robotics competition
- students have many extracurricular clubs in which they may participate
- MQPCS parents are very active volunteers in many school functions and organizations
- anyone walking on our beautiful campus will see happy children eager to pray, play, and learn